

What our participants say

“It’s just knowing that someone is there to support me which I think is quite important.”

What our participants say

“My Advocate is more like a friend than Advocate. They’ve helped me when I was really struggling.”

What our participants say

“It’s a wonderful support mechanism I have never experienced before.”

What our participants say

“My Advocate has given me the confidence to do more things and she's opened my eyes to the fact that I'm not as hopeless as I thought. Also, I'm confident she's around if I need her help.”

What our participants say

“Understanding that I’m more than my learning difficulties.”

What our participants say

“My Advocate was such a good motivator and was always able to put a smile on my face.”

What our participants say

“After being a stay-at-home mum, my confidence was low. My Advocate really helped build my confidence back.”

What our participants say

“I was building on things I had done before, but my Advocate made me realise I had transferable skills as well so I could look for other jobs too.”

What our participants say

“It definitely motivated me as I had someone that was able to give me knowledge of areas I wasn't familiar with and if there were any queries I had, I knew there was someone I could go to.”

What our participants say

“Because I spent several years unemployed and with bad mental health, I was looking for help to improve and become financially independent. I thought the programme could help with that.”

What our participants say

“It was originally to help me to get a drawing tablet for my art, and now it’s progressed even more to help me with my cv and cover letter, and also look at different jobs I would want.”

What our participants say

“I had arrived from Ukraine and didn't know how to get a job or anything. I also needed help with updating my CV to a format which suits the English standards.”
